

I Absolutely Can't Stand Carrots

Just seeing an orange carrot made me turn my head away.

Burying a Tiny Seed in the Soil

Not knowing what would sprout, I dropped the seed into a little hole.

Plenty of Water Every Day

Once tiny green leaves appeared, I ran out every morning to look after them.

Orange Popping Out of the Soil

I pulled the stems with all my might, and a plump carrot popped right up.

One Crunchy Bite, So Sweet

I brushed off the dirt, took a bite, and my mouth filled with a sweet, fragrant flavor.

Now Carrots Are My Favorite

Thanks to the garden I grew myself, I found my favorite taste in the world.
