

I Really Hate Carrots!

Meet Tori, a little bunny who thinks carrots are the worst-tasting thing in the world.

Into the Dark Soil It Goes

Tori carefully plants the tiny seed Grandma handed over.

Watering and Caring Every Day

Soaking up sunshine and water, bright green sprouts begin to pop up.

Plucking Out the Weeds

Wiping off big drops of sweat and pulling the weeds, the leaves grow even thicker.

Heave-Ho! Pull It Right Up

With one strong tug, a plump orange carrot pops right up.

Crunch! It's So Sweet!

A carrot you grow with your own loving care is the sweetest, most fragrant in the world.
